

ABOUT TOTAL IMMERSION

Retreat to integrate

By NATHALIE IMBERT HKORA
& MELANIE OLDHAM

We acknowledge the Traditional Custodians who have walked upon and cared for this land for thousands of years. We acknowledge the continued deep spiritual attachment and relationship of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people to this country and commit ourselves to the ongoing journey of reconciliation

“

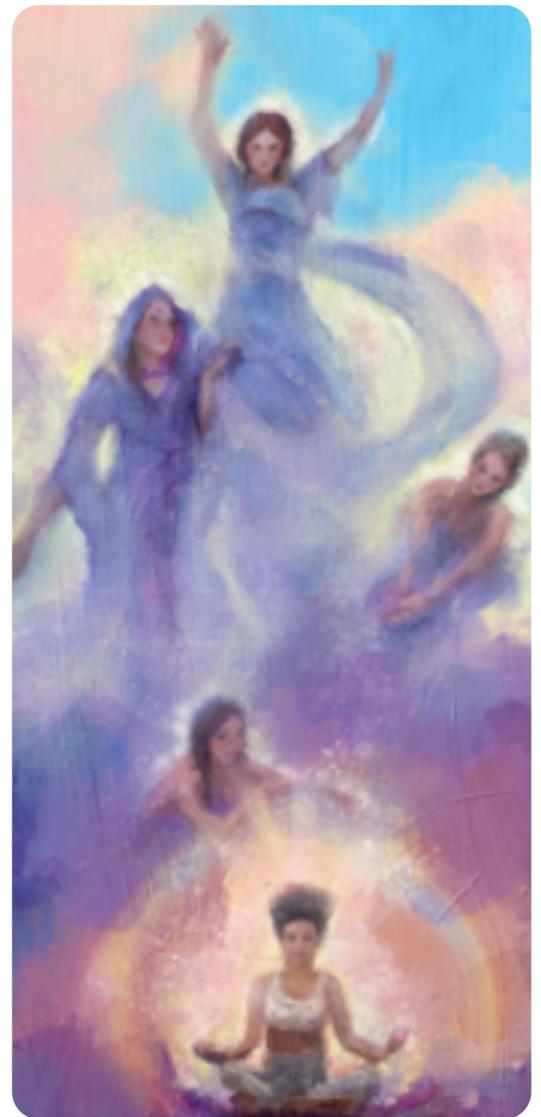

Taking care of ourselves is first of all listening, paying attention, and taking time to breathe with the other. Healing is also helping others to understand themselves which allows the rebalancing of their life, their body, and their needs.

When and where?

A retreat to invoke calm, introspection and treatments in Forrestfield, Western Australia.

The healing provided during the immersion intends the person to face themselves and their choices, as both often lead to disharmony in life.

The treatments allow the patient to take their share of responsibility for events they experienced but also events they suffered and find out how to correct their choices and hence transform their experience.

Why, Who and How?

Retreat, because it is in those profound moments of inner-silence, enhanced by being in contact with the elements of nature, that our consciousness can fully integrate our being by first perceiving and then receiving the vibrations of our higher self. All beings who feel the pull to retreat are invited to do so. All that is required to connect to the self and to connect to our guides is the willingness to open up.

Channeling or the act of a message shared from higher consciousness to a human being. It will help you move forward on your life path. The message opens the consciousness and the heart. It is a vibratory treatment of high intensity on its own and can be transmitted in a spoken form or through our senses.

It's an extraordinary and very unique experience, always fulfilled with love, peace, kindness and wisdom. It is the presence of the Divine that literally comes forward and transmits its energy beyond words. Channeling is a surprising yet natural phenomena.

2 Days of Total Immersion

Sensed and channeled by the medium's consciousness, the profound connection will be received by vibrations from the divine world and transmitted at the terrestrial level,

- Bringing incredibly valuable knowledge
- Bringing light and clarity through wisdom
- Helping to soothe pain and grief
- Helping you to find your way back to Self
- Allowing the alignment with Self
- Bringing people's energy as one
- Being guided to becoming non-attached and free

The opening of the consciousness and heart allows release on a Karmic level, and helps to establish a link between the human, divine and multi-dimensional levels.

Your Hosts

Practitioner

Born in Africa and currently living in France, Nathalie has been walking her life path with the channeling of her Guides, which allowed her to reach a high level of experience in kinesiology and osteopathy.

Nathalie lives life to the fullest and while traveling around the world, she has been on a life mission seeking all the different methods and treatments available on this planet.

Coordinator

Born in France, Melanie has been living in Australia for the last 10 years. Passionate about alternative medicines and the power of creativity on the neural network, she thrives through life being a Certified Results Coach and Art Therapist.

Melanie helps her clients to heal from traumas, chronic pain and PTSD guiding them through a unique process of recovery.
